CHICAGO ELECTION.

THE OPPOSING FACTIONS MAK-ING MISCHIEF.

A Democratic Judge Arrested and Released on Ball-The Canvassing Shows a Falling Off of Votes.

CHICAGO, ILL., April 11.-The board of election commissioners met to-day for the ourpose of taking up the canvass of votes purpose of taking up the canvass of votes cast at the city election on Tuesday. The board first proceeded to hear evidence in the matter of the alleged misconduct of Dennis Sheehan, one of the judges of election in the Nineteenth precinct of the I'wentleth ward. Shechan is the man for whose arrest a warrant was issued yester-day on a complaint of the chairman of the Republican campaign committee. S. P. Harris, one of the Republican judges, testi-fied that after the polls were closed an ditercation arose as to who should count the lekets to see whether they tallied in num-ber with the number of votes cast as shown by the register. Sheehan demanded the keys to the ballot box and they being re-fused he took a hammer and broke the box. Sheehan testified that the whole trouble arose from the fact that Harris wanted to run things to suit himself and did not pro-pose to allow the Democratic judges

TO HAVE ANY VOICE IN THE MATTER. He admitted that he broke the box with a number, but said that it was dong with no intention of fraud. Harris refused to open the box with the key and he (Shechan) opened it in the best way he could in order that the work of counting the ballots might proceed. The investigation was then put over until after completion of the canvass the meantime Sheehan was taken over to Judge Tuthill's court, and at the successfi of Assistant State's Attorney Merry locked

The canvass then begun, and after can-vassing the First ward the subject of reusion in certain precincts arose, which was objected to. The board adjourned till Mon-day morning. The result of the vote in this ward, as canvassed, shows a loss of twenty votes by Cremier, of five by Wash-burn, and of two by Harrison. After re-maining is jail for an hour, Sheehan was re-leased on bail.

ADJOURNMENT.

ORATORICAL TILT. Owsley Attacks Swayne's Title Bill, but the Latter Defends It Nobly.

Special to the Gazette.

AUSTIN, TEX., April 11.—The event of to-day in the house was the oratorical tilt be-tween Owsley and Swayne over the former's motion to reconsider the vote by which Mr. Swayne's title bill passed some days ago. Mr. Owsley had just returned from a visit to Denton and assured the house which Mr. Swayne's title out passes some days ago. Mr. Owsley had just returned from a visit to Denton, and assured the house that his people looked with direst apprehen-sion on the bill, which would east a shadow over unnumbered titles in that county where their records had been destroyed twice by fire in the seventles. He pleaded in the most carnest manner, and asked the house for God's sake to reconsider and kill the oill. It was fraught with mischief that would damage the people of Denton county Swayne recited the history of the bill and showed how it had once been reconsidered, and how he had accepted an amendment suggested by Mr. Owsley that he contended would make the bill satisfactory to him. He also had just returned from a visit to his constituents, and he could assure the house that they wanted the law. The best man in that county, and in Texas for that $500,000. man in that county, and in Texas for that matter, Peter Smith, was here last week pleading for the bill. It was a bill in the niterest of the poor people of Tarrant; it was necessary to protee, them against the rascals, those who would seek to despoil them of their hories, and for the Lord's sake he asked the house that had orce passed the bill to let it stay passed.

Swayne's speech for this bill was the best has made during the term, and, aided as he has made during the term, and, aided as it was by strong speeches by Browning of Denley and Womach, carried the day.

should the "Ifs" and "Ands" Pan Out the Legislature will Adjourn, Sometime. Special to the Gazette.

Austin, Tex., April 11 .- For the last day or two the house has been as noisy as a convention hall, and business has been rushed through in hasty, though perhaps, generally speaking, not an ill considered manaer. A bill that had a good face, and had un-questioned merit, could get the floor, and it went flying through, but if it were of doubtful character, not understood fully by the house, or very long, it had no more show than a snow ball in hades. Some very good blis were kieked aside, postponed or silled with as little mercy as the Mafia is said to extend to its victims. This mur-terous proclivity grows with every hour, and if the legislature should hold together a week longer a bill with the Lord's prayer in it even would meet with seem courtes. a week longer a bill with the Lord's prayer in it even would meet with scant courtesy. Members are getting eager to go home, and seem to be dominated by the idea that it is better to kill time than to enact any more laws. Nothing now holds them here but the appropriation bill, and after that is linally passed it is doubtful if they will stay a day longer at the capital. The formalities necessary to the final passage, enrollment and signing of the bill by the presiding officers of both houses will probably keep us all here until Wednesday. probably keep us all here until Wednesday, although the unexpected return of the bill to the house to-night may hasten matters a lay, and a final adjournment may be ex-

RACING AGAINST TIME.

The Appropriation Bill Trotted Through at the Rate of $1,000,000 an Hour.

Special to the Gazette. AUSTIN, TEX., April 11.-The manner of rushing the appropriation bill through the senate to-day ill compares with the general idea of grave legislative work. It was under consideration less than five hours, and the amount appropriated is more than $4.-000,000_$1,000,000 an hour is menty could 0,000-$1,000,000 an hour is pretty rapid work, even for a state with an overflowing wors, even for a state with an overnowing treasury. Some senators insisted on having more time, as the bill was not printed as read by the secretary, and they found it hard to keep up with the amendments offered. But the majority said "rush," and "rush" it was to the end. It may be all right, but it doesn't look so.
